<sup>1</sup> The government reserves the right to request the introduction into evidence of trial exhibits not made available to the defendants at the exhibit review, if necessary, because of such situations where the government elects to introduce an exhibit at trial that has been previously provided to the defense in discovery but which the government did not contemplate using as an exhibit at trial at the time of the exhibit review, or where the government learns of additional evidence after the exhibit review and intends to introduce that evidence at trial. The defense also reserves its right to object to the introduction of such evidence as appropriate, including (for example) on the grounds that such evidence is unduly prejudicial or should have been produced earlier or is otherwise excludable. The government will make all reasonable efforts to alert the defendants of any such development at the earliest possible time.

Jencks Material Disclosure

November 20, 2022 Government shall disclose all remaining Jencks material to defendants

Witness/Exhibit Disclosure

January 4, 2023 Government and the defense shall disclose its witness and exhibit lists<sup>2</sup>

Jury Instructions, Verdict Form, Joint Statement of the Case, Trial Briefs and other matters

December 27, 2022 Proposed jury instructions, verdict form, joint statement of the case for jury selection, trial briefs and any case specific voir dire question that either party request be asked by the Court

Pretrial Conference

January 5-6, 2023 Pretrial Conference from 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. each day.

The Court, having considered the agreement of the parties, hereby adopts the same.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

<sup>2</sup> The defense will make a good faith effort to disclose all witnesses the defendant intends to call in its case-in- chief. But the defense reserves the right to call other witnesses depending upon the government's proof presented during the trial. The government likewise reserves its right to add to its witness list depending upon the proof presented in the defendant's case-in-chief.
